

Monday Morning Painters Trellis Gallery Exhibit

On exhibit in the Trellis Gallery are 33 pieces from the Monday Morning Painters. The Monday Morning Painters is a casual group of dedicated, professional artists who meet every Monday morning for breakfast then paint together, each using a favorite medium such as watercolor, acrylic, oil or pastel. Their subjects include various area parks, the Maumee River, Lake Erie and other scenic locations in the Northwest Ohio and Southeast Michigan. The group was first established in 1958 by several prominent Toledo area artists. It was then called "Group 9."

Today the Monday Morning Painters has over thirty active members, and many have earned top regional and national honors for painting. A candidate for membership must be sponsored by a member as a qualified, active artist. This exhibit will be featured through August 9.
